A PRIVATE CULINARY EXPERIENCE

CHEF NICOLE RHONE

Nicole Rhone is the Executive Chef at Hilton Fort Lauderdale Beach Resort. Born and raised in Jamaica, Chef Nicole moved to the United States to pursue a culinary degree at the Art Institute of New York. She began her career with Hilton in 2005 as a line cook at Hilton Atlanta. Since then, Chef Nicole has remained creative and dedicated to her craft, earning the position of Executive Chef at the Hilton Fort Lauderdale Marina, before being promoted to her current role in October of 2017.

Her outstanding skill set and personality have received several prestigious honors and awards. Chef Nicole's favorite thing to cook is fresh seafood; primarily fish and loves to source locally. She has a love for the simplicity of food, taking advantage of the natural flavors that it possesses. When she's not in the kitchen, Chef Nicole enjoys spending time with her husband and two children. Her favorite family activity is jet skiing. She also holds a second degree black belt in kickboxing and regularly instructs kickboxing, taekwondo and self-defense classes.
