

Presentations for Healthcare Professionals

Trustbridge provides in-services and presentations on a variety of Hospice and health care related topics, as a service to both healthcare professionals and community members. Free Contact Hours are available for many of these educational offerings. Please note: State of Florida requirements necessitate participants to attend 60 minutes of classroom instruction in order to receive one CEU (contact hour). For more information or to arrange a presentation, contact your Hospice Representative or Field Educator.

- Addressing End of Life Needs Through Sensitivity Awareness
- Advance Directives and DNRO
- Alzheimer's Disease and Alzheimer's Dementias
- Caring for Persons Living with End Stage HIV and/or AIDS
- Caring for Skin Changes at Life's End
- Communicating With Cognitively Impaired/Cognitively Limited Adults
- Compassionate Communication and Challenging Behaviors
- Coping with the Holidays
- Culturally Sensitive Care at the End of Life
- Demystifying the Myths and Fears of Dying
- Depression and Grief at the End of Life
- Discussing End of Life Care
- Fall Prevention for the Hospice Patient
- Hospice and Palliative Care
- Hospice: What is it, How can it help, Who is appropriate
- Hydration & Nutrition at End of Life
- Music Therapy in Hospice and Medical Settings
- Myths and Facts about Hospice Care
- Pain Management - Advanced Concepts and Considerations
- Pain Management Basics for CNAs and RAs
- Quality of Life: The Spiritual Dimension at End of Life
- Symptoms at the End of Life
- The Gift of A Caring Presence at the End of Life
- Understanding Grief
- Understanding Jewish Tradition and EOL Care
- Withdrawing & Withholding At EOL (VE)